Presentation guidelines

General Information

The conference offers a collective reflection on the educational ecosystem in all its complexity. Researchers, teachers, policymakers, social partners, and institutional leaders will share their perspectives in order to build a New Scientific Contract for Education.

The conferences, symposia, round tables, and workshops will take place in person, to encourage discussion, co-construction, and the continuation of scientific projects arising from the debates.

👉 For specific questions: runescongres@gmail.com

🎓 Doctoral Workshops

The doctoral workshops will be offered in a hybrid format (in-person and online) to allow for broader participation.

Registration fees for online presentations are reduced (see the dedicated section).

👉 For sessions including several presenters, including at least one doctoral student, the hybrid format applies. Please specify your preference at: runescongres@gmail.com

🌐 In which language can you present?

🇫🇷 French is the preferred language. Presentations may also be given in 🇬🇧 English, 🇪🇸 Spanish, or 🇵🇹 Portuguese.

📄 Presentation procedures

Detailed presentation guidelines (format, duration, equipment, etc.) will be provided by November 30, 2025, at the latest.
